About Your Personal Benefit Statement

Your Personal Benefit Statement is mailed to you in June if you worked at least 250 covered hours in the previous calendar year and have a valid mailing address on file. The statement shows the employer contributions paid in the previous calendar year based on your collective bargaining agreement.

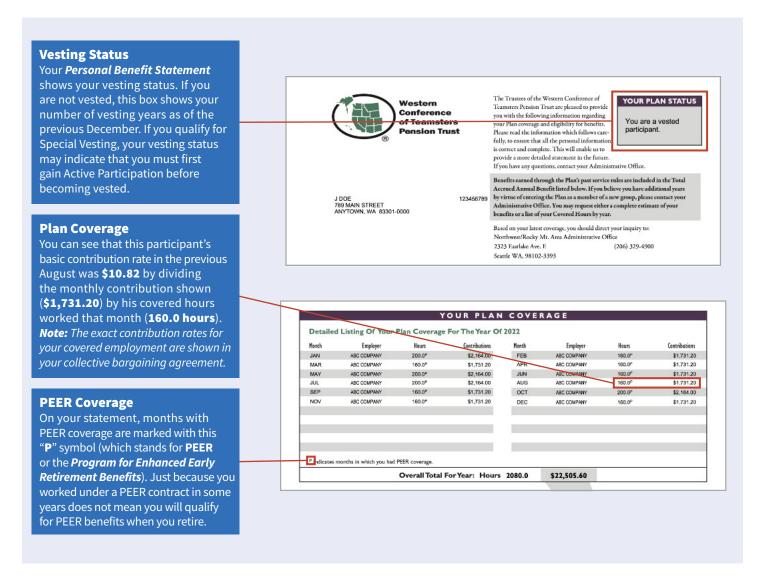

Take the time to check your Plan coverage on your statement and compare how your employer's contributions add up each year. Keep your statement with past copies in a safe place.

Contact your Administrative Office if you have questions regarding the hours shown on your statement.

This sample statement can help you understand your Plan coverage. It assumes that this participant has a basic contribution rate of $10.82 for the calendar year 2022.

Note: The exact contribution rates for your covered employment are shown in your collective bargaining agreement.

Be sure your Administrative Office has your current mailing address so you will receive your Personal Benefit Statement. You can also print a copy of your Personal Benefit Statement from our Plan Member website when you register to access your account information.

About Your Personal Benefit Statement (Continued)

Your Personal Benefit Statement only shows the hours for which pension contributions were paid. Your collective bargaining agreement may not require your employer to contribute on overtime hours. Or it may have a monthly or yearly maximum on the number of hours that require pension contributions.
